Brand Values

Everyone's BFF

ValueFirst is everyone's Best Friend Forever. We understand that we all have faults and we're all humans. No girl/guy is better than the next. We are egalitarian.

Trust

ValueFirst desires to be dependable and trustworthy. We attract businesses who want to feel understood and included. They always project the "if they can do it, I can too" attitude.

Belong

ValueFirst wants to belong. We encourage businesses to be okay just as they are. We have ordinary but solid virtues, and always have the touch of the common being. It is important for us to be accepted and fit in.

Humble

ValueFirst's strategy is to be down to earth yet be a sharpshooter. We are hard working and humble. We are the reliable friend you'd expect to turn up on time and solve everything or just be up for a chat.

Persona & Personality

For the free-spirited souls at ValueFirst, Community is Everything. We are easy to understand and inclusive. We hate the idea of elitism.

Our culture helps people work hard and make them feel valued.

We have zero pretense and we strive for authenticity in every action. Our tastes and pleasures are simple.

We are real, honest and like to relate with others.

We demonstrate CustomerFirst by placing them at the center of every communication instead of ourselves.

We intend to stay this way.

Voice & Tone

The key to sounding like ValueFirst is being that '2AM friend' to all the stakeholders. Just be there!

Just like friends, we believe in two-way conversations. Two-way conversations that exude a human quality, showing that they care about what you have to say. Instead of announcing, ValueFirst is all about engaging.

Technology is great. It has changed our lives, the way we communicate and the way we live, all for the better. However, it is vital to remember the foundation- the human relation.

At the end, we are simply humans talking to humans.
